Memorandum To:

All Australian Participants,
4th WRABF World Championships
South Africa 2019

Dear Participant,

Please find attached the final composition of Australian representatives and individuals attending the WRABF 4th World Championships to be held in South Africa in 2019.

As per the letter of invitation distributed on 11th December 2018 and following advice from the organisers of the 2019 WRABF Championships in South Africa, Australia has been offered additional places at the tournament up to 15 competitors per event (including 3 juniors).

This means that three (3) additional places have been made available for senior members to compete as individuals in certain events. The attached list denotes the 9 x senior members that form the Australian Team(s) for each event followed by the three additional places offered to those seniors to compete as individuals and the 3 x junior positions.

The RBA Working Group has requested that all participants provide information as to whether you have booked accommodation or not and a remind those who have not booked to do so immediately. The RBA Working Group strongly recommends that you book with the preferred accommodation which can be located via this link:
